"I Am Because You Are"
A talk with Gherdai Hassell

ON Thursday 11 March, 5:30pm doors open, 6pm start
AT The Bermuda National Gallery, City Hall

In 2019, Gherdai Hassell uncovered a family tree which traced her lineage back eight generations from Bermuda via St Kitts to Africa, where her ancestor was captured and enslaved.

Driven by an exploration of her own heritage, Hassell examines the lasting impacts of slavery: re-imagining the identities of enslaved Bermudians in a series of striking portraits, texts, and installation inspired by the Bermuda Slave Registers and historic photographs.

This event is free to the public.
